JULIET STEWART - AN INTRODUCTION

Juliet Stewart

“The wisdom I gained from women of all walks of life is a priceless gift to me today... it has allowed me to do business not only intelligently but compassionately as well.”

Juliet brings to her work an Italian sensibility. She is a native of Italy who came to the United States as a young woman. Her creations for each individual woman are timeless and unforgettable.

With over twenty years in the industry, Juliet has practiced make-up artistry at its highest levels. Juliet’s experience includes a position with Lancôme Cosmetics responsible for sales, training and events in twenty-six department stores. As the National Make-up Artist for Prescriptives Cosmetics (Estee Lauder Co.), Juliet worked throughout the United States, Europe, and Asia during a ten year period; four years as the National Make-up Artist exclusive to Saks Fifth Avenue. Although she resigned in 1999, from Prescriptives Cosmetics, Juliet was asked by the president to return. She became the Senior Make-up Artist with her own private make-up studio in the New York office. Her task was to create a high profile clientele. While in this position, Juliet had the opportunity to train Tommy Hilfiger’s executives in make-up artistry for their new cosmetics line. Juliet was so effective and respected that she was featured by Prescriptives in a national TV commercial.

A MESSAGE FROM JULIET STEWART

Juliet Stewart

“All Women Are Beautiful Because Of Who She Becomes With Time...”

Our intention is to provide you with expert service that will allow you to achieve the elegance and sophistication that make-up should provide to you. The studio will make available to you a personalized service in a private, comfortable and non-intimidating setting.

Our clients never leave with “customer remorse”. We have no interest to pressure you in purchasing products from any of our services; this is not about products but about addressing your concerns regarding make-up application and realizing your desires to bring forth the best of you. Our products are available to you should you wish to purchase them or you may simply try to replicate the look with the products from your own favorite cosmetic company.

You will have complete confidence with your new signature look and still feel and look like yourself. The service is about you, not about us or the products - Opening the door to self-expression is the real art of make-up artistry.

We look forward to providing you with excellent service.

Kindest wishes,

In addition to managing her retail and make-up studio in Nyack, New York, Juliet is an advocate for the idea that women need to accept themselves and to be proactive with their health to benefit and improve not only the way they look, but more importantly, how they feel.

Both the “beauty industry” and the “health industry” frequently misrepresent information critical to women’s well-being in order to meet their primary goal: selling products through the media. Trends are not for everyone.

Here is part of the message. Women need to stop buying products in an endless attempt to stop the clock. It is wrong that women feel they become invisible to the world just because they have reached a certain age that they think is “old.” A woman of any age is beautiful because of who she becomes with time - Women must embrace time to own their individuality. What makes women of all ages beautiful and sexy is their self-assurance. The place to start is in the mind.

Juliet is dedicated to educating women by using her expertise in skincare, make-up artistry and health-care alternatives. In her studio consultations, Juliet creates for each woman personal advice and insights that inspire... and work.

In the near future, our website will become a forum for news, resources and ideas about issues that are important to women today.

Now Stewart has a clientele that reads like a guest list at the Oscars, and she has spent years perfecting her technique to find the best ingredients to keep clients looking radiant and healthy. "I like to use products that do not contain Retinol or glycolic acid," she says. "These contribute to inflammation, and long-term use will have a negative effect on the skin."

Her philosophy

"For a facial to be very effective, it not only requires excellent ingredients, but more importantly it relies on the ability and character of the aesthetician."

Unique technique

All Stewart's facials include reflexology, a hand treatment and a shoulder and scalp massage for an all-round experience. She believes total relaxation is also key, which has influenced the design of her serene Broadway spa.

What she uses

Super-luxe Babor products are the mainstay of Stewart's treatments. After years of research on rare ingredients, she's also developing her own skincare range, to be launched next year.

Try for yourself

During your next trip to New York, visit Stewart's boutique spa on Broadway – the Complex C Facial costs Dhs350. See julietstewart.com more details.

After years wowing the industry as one of the US's biggest make-up artists, working for Saks Fifth Avenue and Prescriptives in New York, Juliet Stewart decided to add skincare to her area of expertise and is now NYC's most favoured facialist. "It's like building a house – if the foundation is not laid properly, nothing will ever be right, no matter how much money one spends to make it right," explains the 47-year-old.

Stewart's Complex C Facial is renowned for its amazing results, using vitamins C, A and E to boost collagen in the skin while protecting it from free radicals – perfect for stressed city complexions.

Flawless look starts with skin

Expert Juliet Stewart shares tips for putting your best face forward

The Journal News

To achieve a flawless face, focus less on your makeup and more on your skin. That's the mantra of Italian makeup artist Juliet Stewart, the owner of Juliet Stewart Makeup Boutique & Studio in Nyack. We sat down with Stewart recently to talk about skin care, as part of our ongoing "experts" series, in which we ask local professionals to share a few tips from their areas of expertise.

Stewart says your makeup simply won't apply well, or look natural unless you take care of what lies beneath. What constitutes the basics of skin care?

Stewart recommends investing in a gentle exfoliator, to remove dead skin cells, and an effective moisturizer, to hydrate. Use products that contain appropriate ingredients for your skin's condition and age, she adds.

The payoff for your efforts: If you take good care of your skin, you'll need less makeup to achieve the look you desire.

Stewart swears by one particular skin care product: MEG 21 — an anti-aging cream. The lotion, which she says, "tightens, lifts and firms skin," was developed by doctors — not cosmetics professionals — and contains a compound called Supplamine that she says turns back the clock on lines and wrinkles and "gives the skin what it's losing as you age." At $110 a jar, in this economy it may be a splurge — OK, a big one — but you won't need a lot of other products. "This is an eye cream, day cream and night cream all rolled into one," says Stewart. Apply it twice a day and she says you'll see healthier, younger-looking skin. "All the makeup in the world will not do justice to you, or to the products, if the skin is not properly maintained," she says.

Stewart recommends sticking with a skin care and makeup regimen that works for you, rather than going for what's in and trendy.

"I'm not your traditional makeup artist in that I don't follow trends," she says bluntly. Fortunately, healthy skin is always in style.

Juliet Stewart's must-have products

Microdermabrasion (tube): Key to removing discolored deadskin cells, this exfoliating product also helps with oxygenating the skin, therefore making foundation look much smoother ($45).

MEG-21 Moisturizer 3 in 1: This combination eye cream, day cream and night cream reduces the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles. It also increases moisture and improves overall skin texture, keeping it firm and smooth. Stewart says you can see results in four weeks ($110 face cream/$135 neck cream).

Baby wipes: Use them to clean your makeup brushes and kill bacteria.

Top Tricks

1. If you can only do two things, apply eyebrows and lipstick. Brows frame the face, lipstick balances the face.
2. Match your foundation to your neck. Make sure it's never darker than your neck as it will make your face look tired, drawn and it will make your skin look much older. Avoid bronzers as they will enhance fine lines and wrinkles.
3. Exfoliate your lips. This will help maintain your lipstick color and will help lip liner go on smoother.
4. Keep your cheek color as light as possible. Too much color is aging and unapproachable. Instead, play up your eyes and lips.
5. Exfoliate. Try Crystal Peel Lip & Face Microdermabrasion Exfoliate (tube): It removes dead skin cells and also helps with oxygenating the skin, therefore making foundation look much smoother ($45).
6. Clean your make-up brushes with baby wipes. They kill bacteria.

PROJECT "YOU" GALLERY

Where you have come to be today is your history and no one else's. Capture it and treasure it... you will be surprised what you will discover about yourself. - Juliet Stewart

My mission is to encourage women of all ages (age is irrelevant), to experience a fresh perception of whom they are at any point in their lives. By a woman allowing to set herself free she can experience her many facets of who she really is - something that many women fail to acknowledge because of life's demands and struggles.

After many of my clients responding to me with "why don't you do it first" when I encouraged them to do a photo shoot for themselves, I decided to do just that. Here are a set of photographs from a shoot we did for my birthday.

TESTIMONIALS FOR JULIET

"I just wanted to thank you for your incredible expertise. The make up consultation you did for me was so helpful; I never would have chosen the colors you did. I have spent so much money and time over the years searching for make up that looks natural on my skin. The colors, the tones, and the consistency of the products you chose were perfect for me. The foundation covers imperfections yet at the same time my natural skin shows through. I have spent my whole life in the pinks only to learn, thanks to you, that I look much better in the peaches!

"My visit to your studio and shop was such a pleasant one, the atmosphere is beautiful, the energy serene and most importantly, you and your assistant Alessandra are so lovely, supportive and wonderful it is a pleasure to be there. Thank you again."

— Jeanne

"If I had to pick one word to describe the results of working with Juliet it would be... 'FREEDOM.' I no longer waste time and money at the makeup counters in department stores or pore endlessly over the 'trends' in magazines (how many people does coral lipstick really look good on?). Juliet has given me the tools to create a clean, classic look everyday of the week. Whether I am running errands, going to work or having an evening out my makeup is perfection. Her skin care team is amazing. The facials at Juliet's are sinfully relaxing and you feel pampered from the minute you lay down.

The products used during the service are top quality yet incredibly affordable and less than any Manhattan salon — strangers stop me to compliment my skin. In addition, Juliet is the only person who I have allowed to touch my eyebrows in 3 years — no-one was able to get it right — Juliet did. In short, Juliet and her staff (Alessandra and Vlatka) are not only knowledgeable in their fields but they are down to earth, warm people (and they are exceptionally sweet with my seven year old daughter). I consider myself lucky to have found them!"

— Joan Mourikis

"Sometimes fate steps in and things fit together perfectly. I originally met Juliet when my fiancé and I were looking around for towns to move to after we got married. I immediately fell in love her store and, as most women are, was completely envious of her classic style. This was the woman I needed to do my make-up. However, I talked myself out of it because according to the budget I made using a popular web site, make-up was something I should do for free at a department store counter or for a very, very low cost. I continued the search, going to countless counters and meeting with make-up artists working at salons. Every time I went, I would try to convince myself that the work was great and that I felt wonderful. In the end, I knew I was in trouble — I wasn't truly comfortable.

Thank God my fiancé finally told me to do what I needed to do to be confident on the day (I did whine quite a bit). I immediately booked Juliet and breathed a big sigh of relief. Juliet is a true professional, my make-up was perfect and flawless. I received compliment after compliment on not my dress but my face. Juliet created a look that allowed all of the joy and happiness I felt inside to be visible on the outside. Throughout the day and until I danced the last dance at our reception, my make-up was perfect. Juliet is worth her weight in gold."

— Angela Reyes

"I entered Juliet's elegant boutique with curiosity and left with more knowledge on skincare, make-up and overall wellness than I thought possible from one place and one woman. As an artist, she expertly helped me create a natural look I've been trying for years to achieve. As a caring (but very smart) business woman, she delivered her services in the most customer-focused manner I have ever experienced."

"OMG OMG OMG OMG!!! It's here! I just got home to your package! I tore it open, but then realized I should test it properly, so I washed my arms entirely. And then I spritzed. HMMMM!!!! BEAUTIFUL!!! I can't think of another fragrance that's similar. It's fresh and yet at the same time very elegant, just very upscale (that's the impression it gives me). I have the urge to go get a bottle NOW! LOL!!! OMG this stuff is gorgeous. GORGEOUS!! I can't thank you enough for getting me into it. LOL!!! "

— Comment from MakeupAlly.com

"I passed by your business during the weekend and saw the samples of your new fragrance. I just tried it yesterday and I wanted to complement you. It has personality, memory, sensuality, confidence and its subtlety firm. It makes a statement and an expression, its artistic. The scent is all of those things to me. I wanted to say thank you for bringing back womanhood." –

"Just a note to thank you for such wonderful service & speedy delivery! The Eau De Parfume arrived today & it's even more beautiful than the Eau De Toilette. And much longer lasting! Juliet was simply love at first sniff for me. It seems like I've been waiting for a fragrance like this all my life. It is light & airy, with a depth of magical & unique sensuality. It makes me feel good about myself, no small feat these days! Thank you so much for sharing something so personal with us. Juliet, I will always remember your kindness & patience with me, a stranger who you seemed to know so well. You embody your motto. I will always wear this fragrance & be reminded of you & the better person I can become. I will keep in touch, if you don't mind.

— Karen

"The sweet, mesmerizing scent of Juliet's perfume on my wife stirs up longing feelings of... warm, sweet kisses, feeling of family, togetherness, commitment, passion and security. All the things that are the most important and special pieces of my life."

— William.

"It's as lush as fingers dipped in melted chocolate or honey infused cream. My husband adores it and says that he finds it erotic yet ladylike. I would have to agree with him, because Juliet is as at home with my pearls as it is with my nakedness. It's the perfume equivalent of gorgeous garters worn under a business suit and it makes me smile every time I notice it."

– Editor Beth Ghering.

"My little boy hugged me upon arriving home from school as is our normal routine. His arms tightly wound around my shoulders, head dug into my hair and neck and to my surprise after some time would not let go of his embrace. I was relishing in this moment of affection, hoping it would never end. These times often become rare when children grow up into their teen years. While on my knees, reciprocating this tender moment, I asked my son why he wouldn't let go. Still holding me, he pulled back, took a deep breath in and with a look of adoration in his loving brown eyes, he said Mommy you smell so delicious, I don't ever want to stop hugging you! Holding back tears, I silently thanked Juliet for this precious memory. Not a day will go by when I leave the house without spraying Juliet's perfume on as I want to cherish a moment like this everyday."
